

LAURELS FOR ISN

Students of Indian School Nizwa, brought glory to the school by bagging prizes in the 'UNISON WCAS Fest' held at Waljat College of Applied Sciences, Muscat. In the 3 day college festival held from 2 to 4 May 2017, the students had participated in English drama, street play, group song, solo song and story writing says the press report. This was a high-profile event which attracted numerous students from different schools and colleges.

The students exhibited a commendable performance and bagged first prize in English drama, street play and group song and second prize in story writing. All this was possible with the able guidance of the teachers in charge of the events. This is just a beginning as there are many more laurels to be added. The festival brought together the local community on a common forum and provided an opportunity to enhance the latent talent of the participants.

The Principal, Mr John Dominic congratulated the winners and said that this should motivate others to participate in such events and glorify the name of the school, says the report.
