

GENERAL SCIENCE CH:5 ROCKS AND MINERALS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: V Sec: ____

I. Fill in the blanks.

1. The region deep below the Earth's surface is filled with a semi-solid liquid called -----
2. A -----is a raised surface of the Earth through which magma flows out.
3. When magma reaches the surface of the Earth, it is called -----
4. Magma and hot lava cool down to form -----rocks.
5. -----is the only rock that floats on water.
6. The ocean floor is mostly made up of -----
7. Being a hard and strong rock, -----is used in constructing buildings and monuments.
8. The Red Fort in Delhi is made of -----
9. The Taj Mahal, one of the most beautiful monuments in the world, is made of pure white -----

10. Quartzite and marble are -----rocks.
11. -----are natural substances formed on or below the Earth's surface which are solids and in the form of crystals.
12. Marble is made of -----mineral.
13. Some minerals are precious and are called -----
14. Limestone is a -----rock.
15. Gemstones are used in making expensive -----

II. Name the following.

1. Two gemstones - -----, -----
2. Two things made of aluminium - -----, -----
3. A sedimentary rock used for making tiles and roofs - -----
4. A rock used for making cement and glass - -----
5. The powdered rock used by dentists for polishing teeth - -----

III. Write True or False against the given statements.

1. Igneous rocks are formed from lava. -----
2. Diamond is the softest mineral. -----
3. Granite is found in different colours. -----
4. Aluminium and copper are taken out of the Earth by mining. -----
5. Sea salt is not a mineral. -----

IV. Complete:

