

SCIENCE

CH: 9 THE LIVING ORGANISMS AND THEIR SURROUNDINGS

Class: VI

I Fill in the blanks

1. Plants and animals form the _____ components of a habitat.
2. Trees are cone shaped on the _____.
3. Respiratory organ in fish is _____.
4. Dolphins breathe in through _____
5. A polar bear walks on snow through its _____.
6. The roots in a desert plant are _____ to reach the layers of soil.
7. The stem of desert plant are covered with thick _____ layer.
8. Habitat of yak is _____.

II Write true or false

9. Adaptation is necessary for survival of organisms. _____
10. Organisms that can prepare their own food are heterotrophs. _____
11. Whale is not a fish but a mammal. _____
12. Webbed feet is a feature found in arboreal animals. _____
13. Cactus is a tropical plant. _____

III Answer the following.

How does frog adapt for both aquatic and terrestrial life?

How is yak adapted to live in its habitat?