

SOCIAL STUDIES CH: 4. INDIA – THE LAND SURFACE

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: III Sec: ____

1. Fill in the blanks. Choose the correct answer from the box.

(Deccan Plateau, Ganga, island, Thar Desert, seventh)

- a. River _____ originates in the Himalayan mountain ranges.
- b. River _____ flows through the coastal plains.
- c. The land in the _____ is hard and rocky.
- d. The _____ covers a large part of Rajasthan.
- e. India is the _____ largest country in the world.
- f. An _____ is surrounded by water on all sides.

2. Name the following.

- a. Highest peak in the world. _____
- b. A very high landmass with sloping sides and peaks. _____
- c. A dry and sandy land. _____
- d. The hills in south India. _____
- e. Land that is surrounded by water on three sides. _____
- f. An important means of transport in the desert. _____
- g. A plant found in abundance in the desert. _____
- h. The first President of India. _____
- i. Group of islands in the Arabian sea. _____
- j. Group of islands in the Bay Bengal. _____

3. Write True or False.

- a. India has three landforms. _____
- b. The Himalayas lie in the north. _____
- c. The soil in the plains is very fertile. _____
- d. The western part of India is a plateau. _____
- e. The rivers of the Deccan Plateau depend on rain for water. _____

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

- f. There are four groups of islands in India. _____
4. Fill in the blanks.
- a. The high mountains of Northern India are called the _____.
 - b. The southern part of our country looks like a _____.
 - c. The plateau region in southern India is called the _____ plateau.
 - d. The large plains in the northern India are called the _____ plains.
 - e. _____ is the first Indian woman to climb the Mt Everest.
 - f. The water body along the eastern coast of India is called the _____
5. Match the following.
- | | |
|--------------------------------|---------------|
| a. Aravalli hills | Desert |
| b. Lakshadweep islands | Fertile |
| c. Andaman and Nicobar islands | Central India |
| d. Thar | Arabian Sea |
| e. Plains | Bay of Bengal |