

I Fill in the blanks

1. Semi- solid liquid deep below the Earth is called _____ .
2. A _____ is a raised surface of the Earth through which magma flows out.
3. _____ are the oldest types of rocks.
4. The igneous rock which is glass- like and has sharp edges is _____ .
5. _____ is the only rock that floats on water.
6. _____ kind of rock is formed when magma cools very slowly.
7. The Red Fort in Delhi is made up of _____.
8. Sedimentary rock is formed from many layers of _____ on the sea bed..
9. Chalk is formed from _____.
10. Limestone is used to make _____ and _____.
11. _____ and _____ are metamorphic rocks.
12. The Taj Mahal was constructed using white crystalline _____.
13. Sandstone changes to _____.
14. Every mineral is a specific type of _____.
15. Marble is made up of _____ mineral.
16. Rocks which are mixtures of useful metals and small amounts of unwanted substances are called _____
17. A _____ is formed of a pure substance.
18. _____ is made up of quartz and ten other minerals.
19. The ore has to be taken out of the Earth by _____.
20. The minerals which are precious are called _____.
21. Gemstones are not part of the _____.
22. _____ is the hardest of all minerals.

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

23. _____ and _____ are the examples of gemstones.

24. _____ is a mineral that occurs on the surface of the Earth.

II. Write the different types of rocks with their uses.

I IGNEOUS ROCK

A

B

C

D

II SEDIMENTARY ROCK

A

B

C

D

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

III METAMORPHIC ROCK

A

B