

GENERAL SCIENCE CH: 11 WEATHER AND SEASONS

Class: III

I. Fill in the blanks.

1. Weather can be _____, _____, _____, or _____
2. Weather conditions are caused by the _____ around us.
3. The weather turns _____ if the air has a lot of water vapour.
4. _____, rainy season and _____ are the three main seasons in India.
5. Summer is followed by the _____ season.
6. In summer, the days are _____ and _____.
7. The rainy season is also called _____.
8. The weather is _____ in winter.
9. Places which are close to the sea have _____ weather throughout the year.
10. If air moves fast, the weather becomes _____.

II. Write True or False:

1. The weather can change many times a day. _____
2. The warm air you breathe out contains water vapour. _____
3. The fur of Arctic fox changes to brown in winter. _____
4. In summer, we wear warm clothes. _____
5. The condition of air around us is known as weather. _____

III. Name the following.

1. A state in India that has mild summer and winter - _____
2. A season that has short days and long nights - _____
3. A fruit that ripens in winter - _____
4. A weather condition in which strong winds blow - _____
5. Two summer fruits - _____, _____
6. An animal that remain underground in winter and summer - _____
7. A tree that flowers in summer - _____

- IV. Answer the following questions.

-
-

- | Summer | Monsoon | Winter |
|--------|---------|--------|
| | | |

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET