

GENERAL SCIENCE CH: 10 WATER

Class: III

I. Fill in the blanks.

1. _____, _____, _____ and rivers are sources of water.
2. In India, the rainy season begins in the month of _____, June or _____.
3. The water in wells is actually _____ that collects under the ground.
4. _____ flow into ponds, lakes and rivers.
5. The water of most rivers keeps flowing till it reaches the _____.
6. Some of the river water changes into _____ and mixes with the air.
7. Water vapour is the _____ form of water.
8. The process that changes water into water vapour by heating is called _____.
9. Water cycle brings _____.
10. Water vapour present in the air rises upwards and forms _____.

II. Write True or False:

1. Rivers flow into the sea. _____
2. Water is not precious. _____
3. We should waste water. _____
4. Rainwater harvesting can help to solve the problem of water shortage. _____
5. The seawater is salty because the rivers add salts to the sea water. _____

III. Answer the following questions.

1. Write any four steps to save water.

2. Name any two rivers that flows in your country.

_____, _____

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

3. How are clouds formed?

4. Why is sea water salty?

5. Why do puddles dry faster on a windy day?
