Conversation Exercise: Weekend Fun

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with a few words or a whole line to complete the conversation. Make sure your answers make sense in the context of the dialogue. Each blank is worth one mark.

Ria: Hi, Sameer! I'm so excited for the weekend. Do you have any plans?

Sameer: Hi, Ria! My family is going to the zoo on Saturday. We haven't been in a long time.

Ria: That sounds great! I love animals. Which one are you most excited to see?

Sameer: _____.

Ria: I agree! Tigers are my favorite, too. I wish I could go to the zoo with you.

Sameer: Maybe you can come along! Have you asked your parents yet?

Ria: No, not yet. What should I tell them?

Sameer: _____.

Ria: That's a good idea. I'll ask them as soon as I get home. What else will you do this weekend?

Sameer: On Sunday, I'm going to finish my science project. It's due next week.

Ria: Oh, right. What is your project about?

Sameer: _____.

Ria: Cool! I'm doing a project on the solar system. I hope we both get good grades.

Sameer: I hope so too! What will you do on Saturday instead of going to the zoo?

Ria: _____.

Sameer: That sounds like a lot of fun. We should play together sometime soon!

Ria: Definitely! _____.

Conversation Exercise: Summer Plans

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with a few words or a whole line to complete the conversation. Make sure your answers make sense in the context of the dialogue. Each blank is worth one mark.

Arjun: Hi, what are you doing these days? Summer vacation is almost here!

Pooja: Hi, Arjun! I'm so excited! My family is planning a trip.

Arjun: That sounds wonderful! Where are you going?

Pooja: We're going to visit my grandparents in the mountains. We're going to stay there for two weeks.

Arjun: Wow, that's great! My family hasn't made any plans yet. What do you think I should do?

Pooja: _____.

Arjun: That's a fun idea! I could go to the park and play cricket with my friends. What else can I do?

Pooja: You could also _____.

Arjun: That's a good suggestion. My father can teach me. What are you looking forward to the most on your trip?

Pooja: _____.

Arjun: I hope you have a great time! Don't forget to tell me all about it.

Pooja: I will! And what will you do to help at home during the holidays?

Arjun: _____.

Pooja: That's very responsible of you. Have a great vacation!

Arjun: You too!
