

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

Science
Chapter – 6 Animals: Habitat & Adaptation
Name: _____	Date: _____	Class: Sec: ____

- I) Identify the animals using the given clues.
- Teeth are modified scales. -----
 - Change colour to match the surroundings. -----
 - Scales on the underside of the body help them to move. -----
 - Body is covered with overlapping scales and has gills for breathing. -----
 - Body covered with sharp spines. -----
 - Shed their skin periodically, which is replaced by a new one. -----
- II) Choose the correct answer from the given brackets.
- A giraffe has a long neck in order to better reach leaves to eat. This is an example of _____.
(a) adaptation (b) stimulus (c) response (d) environment
 - Which among the following is the best suited habitat for a ground squirrel?
(a) Mountain (b) Polar region (c) Forest (d) Desert
 - Where do the moles live in a forest?
(a) In a nest (b) In the cave (c) Inside burrows (d) On a tree
 - What type of body covering do alligators have?
(a) Cuticle (b) Scale (c) Shell (d) Fur
 - An adaptation that helps an animal hide from predators.
(a) Camouflage (b) Migration (c) Hibernation (d) Extinction
- III) Give Reason.
- Why are desert animals usually more active at night?

Ans _____

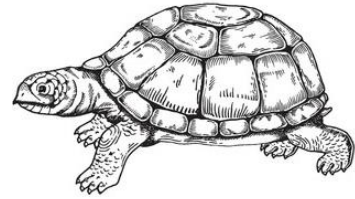

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

13. How is a frog able to breathe on land as well as water?

IV) Name the body covering of the following animals:

V) Name the following:

15. The world's largest habitat. -----

16. A sandy region of land that is very dry and receives very little rainfall. -----

17. The thick pad present in the upper jaw of grass eating animals. -----