

Science

Chapter – 6 Animals: Habitat & Adaptation

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: Sec: _____

I. Choose the correct answer from the given brackets.

1. Which of the following options explains the purpose of hibernation for animals?
 - a) Animals hibernate to protect themselves from predators.
 - b) Animals hibernate to save food and water.
 - c) Animals hibernate to sleep for a long-time during winter.
 - d) Animals hibernate to conserve energy and survive the cold winter months.
2. Which animal has the following adaptations to survive in their habitat?
 - i) Long eyelashes and thick eyebrows.
 - ii) Big, wide feet and fat stored in their hump.
 - iii) Closed nostrils and covered ears.

a) Kangaroo b) Camel c) Fennec fox d) Musk oxen
3. Which of the following is not a method of adaptation in animals?

a) Hibernation b) Migration c) Camouflage d) Photosynthesis
4. In which environment would white-coloured fur be most advantageous for an animal's protection?

a) Desert b) Rainforest c) Polar region d) Grassland
5. Animals which gnaw their food are called

a) Rodents b) Reptiles c) Amphibians d) Mammals

6. Which of these organs helps a dolphin breathe?

a) Blowhole b) Moist skin c) Nostrils d) Beak

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

7. Some animals have special adaptations for living in their particular habitat. For example, in a cold habitat animals may have _____.
- a) Blubber b) Gills c) Wings d) Venom
8. A giraffe has a long neck in order to better reach the leaves to eat. This is an example of _____.
a) adaptation b) stimulus c) response d) Habitat
9. Which among the following is the best suited habitat for a ground squirrel?
a) Mountain b) Polar region c) Forest d) Desert
10. Where do the moles live in a forest?
a) In a nest b) In the cave c) Inside burrows d) On a tree 11. What type of body covering do alligators have?
a) Cuticle b) Scale c) Shell d) Fur
12. An adaptation that helps an animal hide from predators.
a) Camouflage b) Migration c) Hibernation d) Extinction

II. Think and answer

13. A fish and dolphin can swim, still they differ from each other. How?

14. In what ways does an insect's wings differ from bird's wings?

III. Name the body covering of the following animals:

